Gain a New Perspective

Right now, I look at my life and see/feel/think:

But I am good at: Describe your gifts

And I am capable of: Describe your abilities

I enjoy: List your areas of interest or passion

And I know I am: Describe you nature, character, and personality

So regardless of how I feel, I chose today to honor God with my life and use my gifts in my world.
